From the East

September 2009

Greetings my Brothers! I do hope that your summer break has been restful and pleasurable for you.

It is time for us to again meet at Lodge and to discuss many things. I have some ideas that have been presented by others for how we might enhance and improve our Lodge.

As before, we are in need of the maximum attendance, by you, our Brothers so that we may conduct the business at hand. Last evening we held our first Stated Communication since we were "dark" in July and August. I was pleasantly surprised by the increase in number of members who were in attendance. In just two weeks we will be holding our second Stated Communication of September. Your presence is again requested to this important meeting. We cannot proceed with Lodge business without you. Remember our last communication letter in June; and be present on Tuesday, 15 September, 2009 at 7:30 pm; ready to participate in our Lodge and to renew our ties with our Brothers.

I will see you at Lodge,

Leslie R. Williams WM
Mount Moriah Lodge No. 400

Two of our Brothers have a birthday coming up in September. Let us all wish them a very Happy Birthday: Michael A. Rubinstein and John Cabibbo.
